2. Risk Management

- a. General - At least annually, the Board shall review reports provided by management of principal risks associated with the Company’s business and operations, review the implementation by management of appropriate systems to manage these risks, and review reports by management relating to the operation of, and any material deficiencies in, these systems.
- b. Verification of Controls - The Board shall verify that internal, financial, non-financial and business controls and management information systems have been established by management.

3. Human Resource Management

- a. General - At least annually, the Board shall review a report of the Compensation Committee concerning the Company's approach to human resource management and executive compensation.
- b. Succession Review - At least annually, the Board shall review the succession plans of the Company for the Chair, the Lead Director, the Chief Executive Officer and other executive officers, including the appointment, training and monitoring of such persons.
- c. Integrity of Senior Management - The Board shall, to the extent feasible, satisfy itself as to the integrity of the Chief Executive Officer and other executive officers of the Company and that the Chief Executive Officer and other senior officers strive to create a culture of integrity throughout the Company.

4. Corporate Governance

- a. General - At least annually, the Board shall review a report of the Governance and Nominating Committee concerning the Company's approach to corporate governance.
- b. Director Independence - At least annually, the Board shall review a report of the Governance and Nominating Committee that evaluates the director independence standards established by the Board and the Board's ability to act independently from management in fulfilling its duties.
- c. Ethics Reporting - The Board has adopted a written Code of Business Conduct and Ethics (the "Code") applicable to directors, officers and employees of the Company. At least annually, the Board shall review the report of the Governance and Nominating Committee relating to compliance with, or material deficiencies from, the Code and approve changes it considers appropriate. The Board shall review reports from the Governance and Nominating Committee concerning investigations and any resolutions of complaints received under the Code.
- d. Board of Directors Mandate Review - At least annually, the Board shall review and assess the adequacy of its Mandate to ensure compliance with any rules of regulations promulgated by any regulatory body and approve any modifications to this Mandate as considered advisable.

5. Communications

- a. General - The Board has adopted a Disclosure Policy for the Company. At least annually, the Board, in conjunction with the Chief Executive Officer, shall review the Company's overall Disclosure Policy, including measures for receiving feedback from the Company's stakeholders, and management's compliance with such policy. The Board shall, if advisable, approve material changes to the Company's Disclosure Policy.

- b. Shareholders - The Company endeavors to keep its shareholders informed of its progress through an annual report, annual information form, quarterly interim reports and periodic press releases. Directors and management meet with the Company's shareholders at the annual meeting and are available to respond to questions at that time. In addition, the Company shall maintain on its website a contact email address that will permit shareholders to provide feedback to the Company.
- c. Financial and Corporate Issues – The Board has the responsibility to:
- 1) Review and approve the annual financial statements and management's discussion and analysis for the Company and to review and approved the unaudited interim financial statements and management's discussion and analysis for the Company;

 - 5) Recommend appointment of external auditors;
 - 6) Approve banking resolutions and significant changes in banking relationships;
 - 7) Approve contracts, leases and other arrangements or commitments that may have a material impact on the Company such materiality to be approved by the Board from time to time by resolution;
 - 8) Approve spending authority guidelines; and
 - 9) Approve the commencement or settlement of litigation that may have a material impact on the Company.

C. Composition

1. General - The composition and organization of the Board, including: the number, qualifications and remuneration of directors; the number of Board meetings; Canadian residency requirements; quorum requirements; meeting procedures and notices of meetings are required by the British Columbia Corporations Act (the "BC Act"), the Securities Act (British Columbia) (the "Securities Act") and the articles and by-laws of the Company, subject to any exemptions or relief that may be granted from such requirements.

The Governance and Nominating Committee shall analyse the Board of Directors skill sets required and to recommend to the Board the criteria to fill vacancies accordingly.

Each director must have an understanding of the Company's principal operational and financial objectives, plans and strategies, and financial position and performance. Directors must have sufficient time to carry out their duties and not assume responsibilities that would materially interfere with, or be incompatible with, Board membership. Directors, who experience a significant change in their personal circumstances, including a change in their principal occupation, are required to advise the chair of the Governance and Nominating Committee.

2. Independence - A majority of the Board must be independent. "Independent" shall have the meaning, as the context requires, given to it in National Policy 58-201 Corporate Governance Guidelines, as may be amended from time to time.
3. Chair of the Board - The Chair of the Board shall be an independent director, unless the Board determines that it is inappropriate to require the Chair to be independent. If the Board determines that it would be inappropriate to require the Chair of the Board to be independent, then the independent directors shall select from among their number a director who will act as "Lead Director" and who will assume responsibility for providing leadership to enhance the effectiveness and independence of the Board. The Chair, if independent, or the Lead Director if the Chair is not independent, shall act as the effective leader of the Board and ensure that the Board's agenda will enable it to successfully carry out its duties.

D. Job Descriptions of CEO, Chairman and Lead Director

1. Job Description of the CEO - The Board has a job description for the CEO. The job description may change from time to time as the Board of Directors see fit. Attached as Exhibit "A" is the full job description of the CEO.

E. Committees of the Board

1. General - The Board has established the following committees: the Compensation Committee, the Audit Committee, and the Governance and Nominating Committee. Subject to applicable law, the Board may establish other Board committees or merge or dispose of any Board committee.
2. Committee Charters - The Board has approved charters for each Board committee and shall approve charters for each new Board committee. At least annually, each charter shall be reviewed by the Governance and Nominating Committee and any suggested amendments brought to the Board for consideration and approval.
3. Delegations to Committees - The Board has delegated to the applicable committee those duties and responsibilities set out in each Board committee's charter.

4. Consideration of Committee Recommendations - As required by applicable law, by applicable committee Charter or as the Board may consider advisable, the Board shall consider for approval the specific matters delegated for review to Board committees.
5. Board/Committee Communication - To facilitate communication between the Board and each Board committee, each committee chair shall provide a report to the Board on material matters considered by the committee at the first Board meeting after the committee's meeting.

F. Meetings

1. Meetings – The Board will meet at least once in each quarter and not less than five times per year, with additional meetings held as deemed advisable. The Chair is primarily responsible for the agenda and for supervising the conduct of the meeting. Any director may propose the inclusion of items on the agenda, request the presence of, or a report by any member of senior management, or at any Board meeting raise subjects that are not on the agenda for that meeting. Meetings of the Board may be held at any place within or outside British Columbia and shall be conducted in accordance with the Company's by-laws. Notice of a meeting shall be served not less than two days prior to the meeting date. Notice of an adjourned meeting is not required if the time and place is announced at the original meeting. A quorum is present at the meeting when a majority of the number of directors are either present in person or by telephone, electronically or other means of communication. A majority of votes cast in favour at a meeting of directors or a committee of directors is required to pass a proposal. In case of an equality of votes the chairman of the meeting shall not have a second or casting vote.
2. Secretary and Minutes – The Corporate Secretary, his or her designate or any other person the Board requests shall act as secretary of Board meetings. Minutes of Board meetings shall be recorded and maintained by the Corporate Secretary and subsequently presented to the Board for approval.
3. Meetings Without Management – The independent members of the Board shall hold regularly scheduled meetings, or portions of regularly scheduled meetings, at which non-independent directors and members of management are not present.
4. Directors' Responsibilities – Each director is expected to attend all meetings of the Board and any committee of which he or she is a member. Directors will be expected to have read and considered the materials sent to them in advance of each meeting and to actively participate in the meetings.
5. Access to Management and Outside Advisors - The Board shall have unrestricted access to management and employees of the Company. The Board shall have the authority to retain external legal counsel, consultants or other advisors to assist it in fulfilling its responsibilities and to set and pay the respective reasonable compensation of these advisors without consulting or obtaining the approval of an officer of the Company. The Company shall provide appropriate funding, as determined by the Board, for the services of these advisors.
6. Service on Other Boards and Audit Committee - Directors may serve on the boards of other public companies so long as these commitments do not materially interfere and are compatible with their ability to fulfill their duties as a member of the Board. Directors must advise the Chair in advance of accepting an invitation to serve on the board of another public company.

G. Director Development, Orientation and Evaluation

- 1. Development and Orientation - Each new director shall participate in the Company's initial orientation program and each director shall participate in the Company's continuing director development programs. At least annually, the Board shall review the Company's initial orientation program and continuing director development programs.
- 2. Self Assessment – Annually the directors will self assess the effectiveness of the Board, Committees and Directors in fulfilling their responsibilities.

H. No Rights Created

This Mandate is a statement of broad policies and is intended as a component of the flexible governance framework within which the Board, assisted by its committees, directs the affairs of the Company. While it should be interpreted in the context of all applicable laws, regulations and listing requirements, as well as in the context of the Company's Articles and By-laws, it is not intended to establish any legally binding obligations.
